Payfactors Compensation Platform for Compensation Professionals

The new Payfactors platform is here!

Access three diverse and dynamic compensation data sets through a single platform to help you understand where competitive pay trends are going while quickly adapting to change.

REQUEST A DEMO

Set up time with a compensation technology expert to learn how Payfactors helps streamline, centralize, and automate pay processes.

WATCH A DEMO

Not ready to chat? Watch and learn how Payfactors simplifies the path to a scalable, data-driven compensation strategy.

1

Empowering pay decisions with data and technology
Enhance existing compensation strategies and practices with scalable compensation technology. Drive process efficiency while weaving fair pay and transparency into pay decisions for the growth of the business.

2

Redefining the compensation data experience
Proactive pay decision-making is your new competitive advantage. Understand where the market is going while adapting to the rapidly evolving talent market with access to diverse and dynamic compensation data.

3

Drive consistency and alignment across the business
Leverage customizable technology today to help you collaborate and create alignment and efficiency across the organization with flexibility and expertise to grow into the organization you want to be tomorrow.

Compensation is a growing priority in a competitive talent market.

Compensation planning
Include all key stakeholders in the compensation planning process from a single location and platform.

Pay equity
Uncover and analyze pay gaps in minutes and what the drivers are behind pay variances.

Salary structures
Set your organization up for consistency, equity and transparency using structures and ranges.

Total rewards statements
Bring your compensation story full circle by helping employees understand their total value.

Learn more about the new Payfactors compensation platform from Payscale.